

Press Release

2101 O'Neil Ave. Cheyenne WY 82001

Marian Orr, Mayor

For Immediate Release
April 3, 2020

Contact:

Michael Skinner
Public Information Officer
307-637-6302

Office of Youth Alternatives Continues to Provide Services Remotely

CHEYENNE – As we continue to navigate this time of uncertainty due to COVID-19, Cheyenne Mayor Marian Orr wants people to know that remote counseling services remain available through the office of Youth Alternatives (1328 Talbot Ct.). Counselors are available via teleconferencing to assist with the needs of our community's youth and families. The office of Youth Alternatives can be reached at 307-637-6480. More information is also available at www.youthalternatives.net

The office of Youth Alternatives is a division of the City of Cheyenne specializing in a wide range of services to assist youth and families while also focusing on preventative strategies to ensure future success. Youth Alternatives provides family counseling, court services, mentoring, outreach services, crisis intervention, and various group services.